More calendar datesThursday, Oct. 13: Monthly meeting at Gloucester House at 7 p.m.Throughout October:*Saturday and Sundays

Canvassing in New Hampshire

Mondays and Wednesdays:

Phone banks at headquarters

Monthly meeting looks at numbers

Our monthly meeting will be held on Thursday Oct. 13 at the Gloucester House, 65 Rogers St., Gloucester.

Eli Boling, data analyst and Manchester selectman, will explain the reality behind the often conflicting and confusing poll numbers in this volatile election year.. Doors open at 7 p.m.; the meeting begins at 7:30.

It's time to party for the Party

Our Wine and Cheese party that had been scheduled for Oct.16 has been cancelled., but fear not, there'll still be plenty of chances to celebrate being a Democrat.

The organizers felt that with two debate-watching parties at the Cape Ann Cinema plus an Election Night party at the same venue, as well as our regular monthly meeting on Oct. 13, we have more than enough opportunities to socialize and build solidarity. In addition, the pace of canvassing and phone-banking is going to increase as the election draws near. We need to conserve our resources for the final push.

Reminder: The debate-watching and Election Night parties are going to be at Cape Ann Community Cinema, 21 Main St., Gloucester, and include a cash bar and light refreshments.

The debates between the presidential candidates will be held on Sunday, Oct. 9, and Wednesday, Oct. 19. The debates start at 9 p.m.; doors open at 8 p.m.

Time to double-down for victory

Following Hillary Clinton's knockout performance in the first debate, it's time to build on the momentum her clear victory has generated. Throughout October we will be making visits to New Hampshire.

We gather at headquarters on Saturday and Sunday and form carpools to go north. Please email capeannndemhq@gmail.com or call headquarters at 978-559-7770 to sign up. Please look at your calendar and know all the days you can help with this crucial election.

Remember: If Al Gore had won New Hampshire in 2000 he would have been president--regardless of what happened in Florida!

Democratic Dialogue

The Gloucester Democratic City Committee's public access television show, Democratic Dialogue, is airing on Cape Ann TV, Ch. 12, throughout October on Fridays at 4 p.m., Sundays at 7 p.m., and Thursdays at 9:30 p.m. Host David Rhineland talked with Paul McGear, longtime Democrat and former Gloucester Council President, on how this year's presidential election compares with those of years past and the traditions of American electoral politics.

How you can help

Now that our headquarters is open, there are lots of opportunities to help elect Democratic candidates this fall. Among the jobs we have are:

- Phone-banking. We'll be making calls all over the country in support of Democratic candidates. Please call to volunteer.
- Canvassing. We'll be working with the Clinton campaign to target voters -- mostly in New Hampshire, but perhaps other battleground states as well.
- Welcoming at headquarters. This includes greeting visitors, handing out literature, registering new voters and fielding phone inquiries.

To those of you who have already volunteered to help at headquarters: Thank you! It's so important that we maintain a constant public presence.

If you are available to fill any of these roles, please contact us at capeandemhq@gmail.com or call (978)559-7770. Indicate the kind of work you'd like to do and when you are available to do it.

Staying in touch....

In campaign season, things happen fast. We need to be able to respond quickly to the changing demands of the campaign. Watching your inbox for communications from the committee or by visiting the GDCC website at:

www.gloucesterdemocrats.org

The Clinton campaign website is also a great resource—especially for those of you looking to canvass or phone bank:
