Thursday, March 9, Delegate selection caucus and monthly meeting

Sunday April 30, annual brunch at the Elks in East Gloucester

Rebuild and refocus! Begin by attending Convention caucus March 9

The Gloucester Democratic City Committee will hold a citywide caucus to select delegates and alternates for the party's June 3 platform convention in Lowell on March 9 at 6 p.m. at the Gloucester House, 63 Rogers St. The caucus will be held in advance of the committee's regular monthly meeting.

In order to be selected as a delegate, candidates must be registered or pre-registered as a Democratic voters prior to the caucus. Those wishing to be considered as delegates may register to vote or update their party affiliation at the City Clerk's office at City Hall, 9 Dale Ave. (978) 281-9720 or online at the Secretary of State's website <https://www.sec.state.ma.us/ovr/>. In addition, pre-registered Democrats who will be age 18 by Sept 11, 2018, the anticipated date of the primary, will be able to participate in a caucus and run for delegate.

Open Door director to address GDCC at March meeting

This month's guest speaker will be Julie Lafontaine, Executive Director of The Open Door. Julie will be speaking about the work done by the Open Door and how local Democrats can get involved. The meeting will be co-chaired by Matt Murray and Dru Tarr.

All Democrats and friends are welcome. Admission is free with free refreshments and cash bar.

The meeting will be held Thursday, March 9, at 7:30 p.m. at the Gloucester House Restaurant, 63 Rogers St., and is preceded by a social hour at 7.

Democratic Dialogue

The Gloucester Democratic City Committee's public access television program, Democratic Dialogue, will air on Cape Ann TV, Ch. 12, throughout March on Thursdays at 9:30 p.m., Fridays at 4 p.m., and Sundays at 7 p.m., Host Liz Murray will chat with Christine Tron, Commander of the Beverly V.F.W. post, and a Democratic State Committee member, about her 30-year military career and current public service activities.

For more information, call 978-283-2511.
